In addition to this nomination form, please provide a separate letter of nomination (which should not exceed 500 words and may include multiple signatures) outlining evidence of one or more of the following criteria. Check each box that corresponds to the criteria met by the nominee.

- 1. A distinguished career of research or scholarship. Sustained and significant contributions to an area of research or scholarship that has earned the nominee special distinction in their discipline.
- 2. An emerging career of research or scholarship. Multiple, noteworthy achievements in research or scholarship early in a new faculty member's career.
- 3. An individual example of extraordinary research or scholarship. An example of research or scholarship that is considered by peers to be groundbreaking, highly impactful, and/or particularly prestigious.

Along with the nominating letter, nominators may include 1-2 additional supporting documents (e.g., a nominee's CV). Nominations should be submitted to Rosemary Klein (rfklein@ches.ua.edu) by September 12, 2018.

A review committee appointed by Dr. Usdan and consisting of Dr. Usdan, a representative from each department, and at least one representative from the CHES Leadership Board will review the nominees and forward a recommendation to the Dean. The award will be presented during the Homecoming Convocation.
